Life Long Learning

SFU CONTINUING STUDIES

Join us online on March 6 to explore how the ruling elites permitted the greatest artists of the Italian Renaissance to create extraordinary artistic commissions. Art historian Efrat El-Hanany will discuss the Medici of Florence, Ludovico Sforza of Milan (patron of Leonardo da Vinci), and Pope Julius II, who oversaw the creation of some of the greatest masterworks of Michelangelo, Raphael and Bramante.

Great Patrons of the Italian Renaissance: From Lorenzo the Magnificent to Pope Julius II
Friday, March 6 FREE online via Zoom
11 a.m.—12:30 p.m. PST
RSVP

Last chance for spring courses
A few seats are still available for our spring 2026 Liberal Arts and 55+ courses. All courses are six weeks long and open to all ages, with the usual tuition discount for learners 55+ (click “Apply a discount” in your cart and select “55+” from the dropdown list). Register now to save your seat:

Art and archaeology

- The Archaeology of Nubia: Pyramids, Warrior Queens and Kingdoms Along the Nile
  Thu, Feb 26–Apr 2 | Vancouver
- Social Artistry Through Co-creation
  Mon, Mar 2–Apr 13 | Vancouver

Life Long Learning

Contemporary issues and history

- Women in 20th-Century Ireland
  Sat, Feb 21–Mar 28 | Vancouver

Writing

- Personal Story or Personal Essay? Choosing How to Tell Your Truth
  Thu, Feb 26–Apr 2 | Vancouver
- The Zuihitsu: An Exploration of Japanese Prose-Poetry
  Mon, Mar 2–Apr 13 | Vancouver

SFU Continuing Studies
2300-515 West Hastings Street
Vancouver, B.C. V6B 5K3
778-782-8000 | Toll-free: 1-844-782-8877
learn@sfu.ca